Dear Parent/Carer

Re: Year 9 Trip to York Barbican – 11th July 2022

As part of the York Schools' Reading Festival, we are looking to take all Year 9 students to York Barbican on Monday 11th July to watch a talk by Anthony McGowan, an author who has written many books and won the 2020 CILIP Carnegie Medal for his book Lark. This visit will be a fantastic opportunity for the students to hear about the author's journey into becoming a writer, his creative process and his views on the power of reading.

This trip will be free of cost and will take place during the school day, meaning that students will be absent from their normal period 1 and period 2 lessons. We will take the coach at 9.30am and then return at 11.30am.

I would be grateful if you could give permission on this link in order for your child to be able to attend by Wednesday 29th June : <https://forms.office.com/r/b8Ux3DxXcg>

Pupils do need to wear school uniform as usual.

Please bring any medication you might need for the day. Students who have prescribed Epipens and/or inhalers must have them on their person at all times, clearly labelled with their name.

All students have access to our extra-curricular activities and reasonable adjustments will be made to ensure each student's full inclusion in this trip. Please contact Mrs Mehta, SENCO, if you think that this may be needed for your child.

Yours sincerely
