Dear Parents and Carers,

I am delighted to share some wonderful news with you. Fulford School has been named The Sunday Times Comprehensive Secondary School of the North 2025.

This prestigious award celebrates the outstanding achievements of our students and the excellence of our school community.

Details of the award will be included in The Sunday Times Parent Power guide. The guide will be published online at 7am on Friday 6th December and available in print in a supplement on Sunday 8th December. It will be published in the local press today.

Being recognised at this level is a tremendous honour and reflects the incredible commitment, resilience, and hard work demonstrated by our pupils, staff, and the wider Fulford family. Your unwavering support as parents and carers plays a vital role in this success, and we are deeply grateful for your partnership in your children's education.

While academic achievement is an important measure of success, this award also reflects our commitment to providing an education that goes beyond grades. We strive to nurture well-rounded individuals, guided by our core values, who are confident, compassionate, and prepared to make meaningful contributions to the world around them.

This recognition inspires us to continue striving for excellence in all that we do. Together, as a school and community, we will keep building a supportive and ambitious environment where every child can thrive.

Thank you for being such an integral part of our journey and for trusting us to guide your children through these important years.

Please do get in touch if there is any aspect of our provision that you would like to discuss: headteacher@fulford.york.sch.uk

Kind regards,

Russell Harris
